TAFT WAS ONCE RICH TROPICAL GRAZING LAND

TAFT CAL., Oct. 26.—Thousands of years ago the desert oil land around Taft was a rich, tropical grazing country over which roamed camels, lions, mastodon, bear and other animals, according to John B. Stevens, representative of the geology department of the University of California.

Bones of these animals who generally are found to the tropics have been found near McKittrick, an oil point not far from here. The bones were discovered in a brea land, the geological term for a tar bog.

An interesting discovery was made a year ago of a partial skeleton of a Pleistocene horse. Probably this horse, Stevens said, lived here during the Pleistocene period, the last period of the ice age which began some 250,000 years ago.

Stevens himself not only discovered the skull of a lion. The worn condition of the teeth caused him to believe that about 150,000 years have passed since the animal was caught in the tar bogs probably while looking for water.

LIVING COSTS AUSTRIA RISES ALARMING RATE

Increase Reported at Twenty Thousand Per Cent Since First of the Year

VIENNA, Oct. 2.—It is estimated that the cost of living in Austria has increased over 20,000 per cent since January of this year.

Each monthly index number, on which all government salaries as well as agreements between employers and employees are based, has mounted steadily, until this month government employees receive salaries equal to 155 times the amount paid in March of 1921. This and other government outlays has been met largely by the printing press, until the current statement of the Austro-Hungarian Bank shows a total note circulation of nearly two thousand billions of kronen. One week's increase alone was 150,000,000,000.

Within the last month strict government control over all dealings in foreign exchange has raised the krona from about $1.00 to 74,000 to the dollar. Chandler, republican nominee for United States senator; A. Grant Miller, nominee for congress; George E. Smith, nominee for state printer; E. H. Huntling, nominee for state treasurer, and George B. Russell, nominee for surveyor general.

An orchestra was engaged for the occasion and between the hours of 2 and 4 o'clock there was a constant stream of visitors at headquarters.

The rally tonight at the Butler theatre promises to prove an epoch making event in the political life of Tonopah and visitors have been arriving in numbers from outside districts of Nye and Esmeralda counties, who are desirous of being informed concerning the true condition of state and nation. Messrs. Chandler and Miller are acknowledged to be two of the most finished orators in the entire west, and equipped with this accomplishment they are versed thoroughly in the great issues that are now confronting the people of the nation.
